

A PRESS RELEASE ON JULY 29, 2015
DEMANDING HOW MUCH THE GHANAIAN
TAXPAYER PAYS ON PRESIDENT MAHAMA'S LEAVE

Fellow Ghanaians, President John Dramani Mahama took a seven-day leave and would resume on August 3, 2015. We commend him for taking a leave to rest. In 2012, the Parliament of Ghana approved an amount of GHc94.7 million for President Mahama to spend, but unfortunately he overspent by a whopping taxpayers amount of GHc158 million.

At this juncture, the Taxpayers' Alliance Ghanaian would like the Presidency to publish how much the taxpayer is paying on President Mahama's leave.

We hope the Presidency will embrace transparency and the human dignity of the taxpayer and make public all cost on his leave.

May God bless the Ghanaian taxpayer.
