

World Taxpayers Associations 13th world conference in Berlin, March 17-20th, 2016.

Conference theme:

Good governance and low taxes in an uncertain world.

World Taxpayers 13th conference will take place March 17 -20th 2016. Here is the first, outline of program and general information. The 16th of March there are affiliated programs, open by invitation to WTA participants.

Location. Mercur Hotel, Berlin Tempelhof

The official WTA program will start in the evening of Thursday, March 17th with a welcome reception.

Friday 18th will be a series of high level discussions on important issues. Saturday the 19th will be focused on important know how – sharing and listening to experts in a number of fields in six different seminars.

Outline of program:

Wednesday, March 16th - afternoon, from 1 pm through Thursday morning March 17th:

Tax Payers Leaders Forum and Coalition Leaders Forum

Hosted by Americans for Tax reform on invitation. Training and sharing sessions.

Thursday, March 17th

From 9 am until 1 pm

Free Market Road Show – one of more than 30 presentations and discussions around Europe by economic experts, commenting on current issues and economic prospects.

From 1 pm – board meetings and general meetings of WTA and Taxpayer's Association of Europe.

Thursday , March 17th, 7 pm

Welcome reception for the WTA conference.

Friday, March 18th

Main themes – first two in morning, third and fourth in afternoon:

- International stability – low taxes for economic growth. Future alternatives.
- Public-private partnerships. Alternatives to financing infrastructure and welfare.
- Lunch presentation about currency changes and how the economies were stabilized in Eastern Europe after the fall of the Soviet Union.
- The need for good governance and good governance in practice.
- Interest policy, currency issues, cross boarder taxation and creating a growth climate.

Saturday, March 19th

- Six workshops on themes like: Campaigning and fund raising, media coaching, alternative marketing and PR – trends and resources, styling and appearance, facts on the climate issue, up date on social media usage.
- From 3 pm Tour of Berlin, with visit to special locations.

There will be special lunch and dinner speakers and evening programs both Friday and Saturday. Conference ends with Gala dinner Saturday night.

To facilitate our planning, could you already now indicate your interest – this is without final commitment, but will help with hotel and other planning. We can then also send you more detailed information as the plans evolve. If you need help with visa applications, let us know in very good time.

Yes, I am interested in participating and getting more information on the WTA world conference in Berlin, March 17-20th 2016

Name

E-mail

Organization

Send to Secretarygeneral@worldtaxpayers.org